WINGSNTHINGS: The Music of Paul McCartney

"Hey Jude", "Let it Be", "Band on the Run", "Jet"... what do these songs have in common? They're all timeless and all written by one guy- Paul McCartney!

WingsNThings Is a Seattle band playing the Music of Paul McCartney. From Beatles classics, to Wings and Solo hits, WingsNThings covers it all.

A 5-member band of Seattle music veterans from such great Seattle club bands as The Machine, About Face, The Rockafellers, The Penguins, and Max Axle have joined forces to perform this great music.

WingsNThings is faithful to the original recordings of these great songs but also adds a lot of punch and excellent harmonies to their live arrangements.

BRYAN WOOLLEY: Lead Vocals, Electric & Acoustic Guitars, Piano, Mandolin

BRYAN has been a fixture in Seattle bands for most of his life and has for the past 12 years been the lead singer and front man of the popular Casino/Corporate/Club/Festival band "The Machine". Always a Beatle/McCartney nut, he jumped at the chance to play in WingsNThings when Marc Montagnino approached him about the concept. Along with Co-lead vocalist ARNY BAILEY, BRYAN fronts WingsNThings: The Music of Paul McCartney and between he and ARNY, they keep things fun for the band and audience. BRYAN also plays bass, and shares vocal responsibilities with ARNY BAILEY in Borrowed Time: The Music of Styx.

ARNY BAILEY: Lead Vocals, Bass, Ukulele

ARNY cut his vocal chops on everything from early country to Led Zeppelin. His seemingly limitless vocal range and multi-instrumentalist abilities have allowed him to play when and where he'd like. While continuing to front About Face and The Rockafellers (and sitting in with whoever needs a hired gun), ARNY used his vocal and guitar skills with The Grand Delusion (Styx Tribute) and Highway Run (Journey Tribute) over the last 3.5 years. After those two bands folded, ARNY created another Styx project (Borrowed Time: The Music of Styx), and is currently that band's guitarist and co-lead vocalist with BRYAN WOOLLEY.

MARC MONTAGNINO: Drums, Vocals

MARC has been involved in the Seattle music scene for over 20 years, contributing his drumming and vocal talents towards a multitude of local bands and music projects, including Beyond the Fringe, Max Axle and Tony La Stella's Wise Guys. His ability to play a wide variety of drumming styles as well as his eclectic combination of powerful precision, vocal abilities and stage presence has earned MARC a successful place in the local music industry as one of Puget Sound's most versatile and talented drummers. MARC brings his own unique talents and his excitement for Paul McCartney's music to WingsNThings. MARC and BRYAN had always wanted to play together but had a difficult time getting their schedules to coincide. Together, they conceived the WingsNThings project and proceeded to recruit each member to make sure that it was the best live band it could be.

RON SMEVIK: Lead Guitar, Vocals

RON performed for 10 years in the duo known as Sam'n Ella, before forming the gourmet classic rock band The Rockafellers in 2003. The Rockafellers specialized in performing "The Wall" by Pink Floyd and performed at many outdoor concerts in the Seattle area. A "Wings" fan for life, RON revels in bringing the guitar stylings of Jimmy McCulloch to a new generation of fans.

DAVID SHORE: Keyboards, Vocals

Welcome our newest member! DAVID is a multi-keyboardist, sequencing artist, and vocalist. Born & raised in Seattle, DAVID's expertise includes national and international entertainment as well as many local bands in the Pacific Northwest. Groups like Tour de Force, Bush Patrol, Hip City, Chris Ward and Plan B, and The Penguins round out his creative resume'. DAVID's ability to reproduce the keyboard parts and orchestration found in McCartney's vast song catalog is nothing short of amazing.
